THE BEAUTY FACTORY SINCE 1869

Acca Kappa in Italian means H and K, the initials of Hermann Krüll, who founded the beauty factory in Treviso in 1869. Acca Kappa is still an independent family company devoted to quality, authenticity and fairness.

In the heart of Treviso – where history, nature and dedication to work coexist in harmony – Acca Kappa is committed every day to transforming passion into art. Every brush, every perfume, every body product is the result of a continuous improvement process, through which the company wants to combine constant research and professionalism to give life to intense emotions and unforgettable sensations. Only in this way can beauty and well-being become a form of excellence.

For four generations Acca Kappa has been crafting products seeking the highest quality in every detail, guided by the values that have made its history and its success. To ensure that sensory and olfactory experiences become moments of purely Italian slow living.

CARE, PASSION AND TRADITION FOR OVER 150 YEARS.

The Acca Kappa story is hand in glove with the tradition and territory of the Veneto region: it is right here – where the marvel of nature alternates with the beauty of the villas, where the passion for craftsmanship marries with the culture of labor – that in 1869 Hermann Krüll decides to found his company, finding the perfect setting to inaugurate a mission devoted to beauty and quality, and capable of combining tradition and innovation, inventiveness and professionalism, past and future.

The international dimension of Acca Kappa was built thanks to the foresight of four generations of entrepreneurs, who have taken turns at the helm of a company still today firmly anchored to the values of its founder. From the historic headquarters in Treviso, today Elisa Gera-Krüll carries on the same dream, embellishing it with a line of fragrances that evoke the splendor, charm and suggestions of the Italian garden.
